

Dear Colleagues,

We would like to recommend the 1st Conference on Wild and Domesticated Mammal Hair (WDMH) to your kind attention.

<http://1st-conference-mammal-hair.elte.hu>

The 4th Circular issued by the Organising Committee is to inform you about the progress.

Registration and abstract submission

The online registration and abstract submission is now open!

<https://e-conf.com/wdmh2019/registration/>

Should you need any help please contact the Conference Secretariat:

office@altagra.hu

How to prepare yourself?

* Study the „Planned programme”

The Planned programme might help you to see the topics and the proposed structure of the sections.

The Scientific Committee can change the titles of the proposed sessions, depending on the number and diversity of the submitted and accepted abstracts.

It is now up to you, the participants to provide the content for the Programme.

* Follow the instructions provided in the presentation Guidelines

Looking forward to your registration and abstract submission.

Please share this information with your colleagues, scholars and PhD students who might be interested in this topic and would be enthusiastic to participate in this conference.

Best regards,

26.11.2018.
